S. RES. 301

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

June 30 (legislative day, June 2), 1954

Mr. FEINSTEIN submitted the following resolution, which was ordered to be printed:

Reported by Mr. Watkins, from the select committee, created pursuant to order of the Senate of August 2, 1954, with amendments [omit the part struck through and insert the part printed in italics]

RESOLUTION

[Resolution]

Resolved, That the conduct of the Senator from Wisconsin, Mr. McCarthy, is unbecoming a Member of the United States Senate, is contrary to senatorial traditions, and tends to bring the Senate into disrepute, and such conduct is hereby condemned.

[Resolution]

Sec. 2. The Senator from Wisconsin, Mr. McCarthy, in conducting a senatorial inquiry intemperately abused, and released executive hearings in which he denounced, a witness representing the executive branch of the Government, General Ralph W. Zwicker, an officer of the United States Army, for refusing to criticize his superior officers and for respecting official orders and executive directives, thereby tending to destroy the good faith which must be maintained between the executive and legislative branches in our system of government; and the Senate disavows the denunciation of General Zwicker by Senator McCarthy as chairman of a Senate committee and censures him for that action.
