Create a propaganda poster that is clearly in favor or against joining World War I. Use recognizable symbols, for example the flag, and be sure it is obvious what your position is.

All of the examples above are in favor of the war, but you might be opposed to it.

You will be graded on your ability to communicate your position, not on your artistic ability. The poster should include some words as in the examples above.